Call for papers for the Workshop on Inflation Expectations

The Research Institute for Development, Growth and Economics (RIDGE) and the Banco Central del Uruguay are pleased to announce the call for papers for the Workshop on Inflation Expectations to be held in Montevideo, Uruguay, on 3 August 2018.

The keynote will be delivered by Olivier Coibion.

The deadline for submission is May 15th.

The organizers welcome theoretical and empirical papers related to inflation expectations. In particular:

- inflation expectations formation process.
- anchoring of inflation expectations.
- measurement of inflation expectations.
- the role of inflation expectations in the transmission of monetary policy.
- inattention.
- imperfect information.

The RIDGE Forums aim to favor the spread of high quality research in economics by bringing together top researchers working on the frontier of knowledge with local and regional researchers and policymakers. Participants to this workshop are welcome to attend the Banco Central del Uruguay XXXIII Annual Conference to be held on 1-2 August, 2018.

Paper Submission

Full papers, written in English, may be submitted for consideration for the meeting. The cover page should include: the title of the paper, institutional affiliation (including address, phone number and email of each author) as well as an abstract with the appropriate JEL classification.

Each author can submit and present at most one paper, although can be co-author of other submitted papers

Full papers, in PDF format, should be submitted through: <http://www.ridge.uy/paper-submission/>

Important Dates

Deadline for paper submission: May 15th, 2018.

Authors of selected papers will be contacted by June 1st, 2018.

Workshop: August 3, 2018.

Note

Organizers will make hotel reservations and cover accommodation costs (up to two nights) to speakers. Conference participants are expected to finance their travel at their own expense or seek support from their home affiliations.
